

Useful websites

Kingdom Bank – Kingdom Bank is a Christian Bank with a mission to ‘Grow God’s Kingdom and Change People’s lives for good’. They work with many Churches offering a range of savings, lending and insurance products.

The Evangelical Alliance – The Evangelical Alliance is an organisation which brings individuals and organisations within the Christian community together. Created in 1846, the EA has always been committed to a united way of working together to have a more influential role in the development of society; and helping people within and outside of the Christian community.

The Children’s Society – A Christian based Charity with the sole aim of giving every child an equal chance in life.

OSCAR – UK Information Service for World Mission: A huge site full of information, advice and resources for Christians involved or interested in mission work overseas.

Christian Guild Holidays – Christian Guild Holidays has six holiday and conference centres around England which are open all year to Christians of all ages and all denominations.

Care for the Family – Providing support for families through seminars, resources, special projects and correspondence.

Christian Conference Trust – Providing facilities for conferences, retreats and meetings at The Hayes and High Leigh Conference Centres.

The Christian Legacy Consortium – A consortium of Christian charities including Bible Society, Care for the family, CMS, Livability, Scripture Union, Stewardship, Tearfund and The Leprosy Mission.

Christian Music Ministries – Publishing and supplying Roger Jones' works.

Cliff College – A training college sponsored by the Methodist Church and validated by The University of Sheffield, offering a wide range of courses for people aged 18 years and over, with no upper age limit. The college is open to members of any Christian denomination from anywhere in the world.

Greenbelt Festivals – Annual Christian arts festival over the August Bank Holiday weekend, and associated events throughout the year.

Independent Examiners – Charity accountants.

Medical Missionary Association – Stimulating interest in world mission; providing resources for Christian health professionals working overseas.

Priory Automotive – Suppliers of new and used cars to churches, church members and charities.

Stapleford House Education Centre – Encouraging Christian concern for education. Inset courses and resources for school teachers.